Ran into Francis Truman at the CPL -- he teaches at North Pocono High School and lives in Carbondale; he knew who I was / am, and started talking to me. We exchanged "biographies," & he told me that I showed he on the "substitute list" at NPHS -- he will get the forms that are necessary and leave them at the desk at the CPL for SKP.

Ran into Eric Bradbury (brother of dog who is English & who spends two or three around Pioneer Days, in Carbondale -- about 65-70 -- perhaps seen) -- easy going & civilized. Perhaps I can get him involved with

The reason I was in the CPL is that I was looking at P.N. 85 on the microfiche machine. Truman & Eric Bradbury spotted me. The microfiche machine because I had page down that are on each microfiche P.N. 85. Just for the record, here are

Late morning
Spent much of the afternoon at the SAC -- doing the SAC money for the past couple of weeks; fortuitously, John Morn came by as I was finishing & I gave him the number that he needs to have. Went to the First National and made the necessary deposits & on my way back to the SAC, I ran into BBS & EAG on Lincoln Avenue (at Uneda Place) -- they invited DWP & SRP up at 7PM -- "Yes, well to the" said SRP. They

I finished typing the 10.5 of the CHS & M. due. down to The Trimer and left Mayfield & saw Hank at Mayfield Big Chief) & gave er. -- "all changes -- situation -- must be condony" said I & then took my leave & went to DWP that we had meeting Street, which, of to him. We arrived at the recently re-laid front BBS were in town) & then the only way to describe looked wonderful. We had tea, in the gave DWP a box of which they believe he under (but he doesn't) & they gave me a quart of "Danville Syrup" (young molasses); I showed them the copy of the microfiche
